

SIMPLEX PRODUCT BULLETIN

CHANGE FROM SIMPLEX P41A TO P41 HAND PUMP MODEL

Product Change

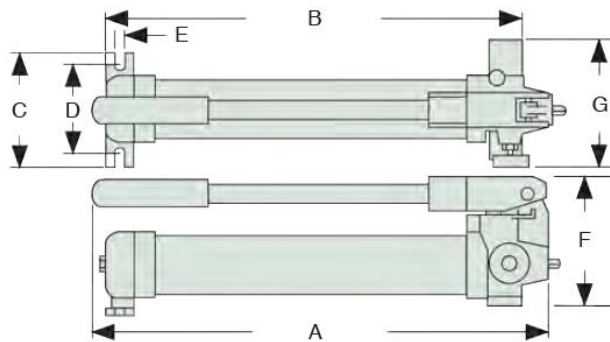

Effective immediately, the Simplex P41A hand pump will be discontinued. Simplex will be unable to fulfill any more orders for the P41A hand pump. With this change we are happy to announce the return of the Simplex P41 hand pump model, available immediately. The P41 hand pump model is known for its overall high quality, steel construction, and durable handle design capable of exceeding the expectations of the most demanding customers.

Pricing

The pricing for the P41 will be equal to the current pricing of the P41A hand pump. Please see your most recent list price sheet for details.
